

A wide-angle photograph of the Jan Kochanowski University of Kielce building at dusk. The building is a large, multi-story structure with a light-colored facade and numerous windows. The ground floor features a series of arched entrances, some of which are illuminated from within. A statue stands on a pedestal in front of the central entrance. The building is topped with a decorative balustrade and small, dark, conical finials. The sky is a pale blue with some light clouds. A white banner with the university's name is overlaid on the image, and a blue logo with the university's name is in the bottom right corner.

A background photograph of four students standing on a paved area in front of a modern building. On the left, a man in a dark puffer jacket stands next to a large black suitcase with a red stripe. To his right, three women are posing playfully. One woman in a brown coat is making a peace sign. Another woman in a dark jacket is also making a peace sign and has her arm raised. The third woman, wearing a dark coat and a beanie, is leaning back with her arms outstretched. They are all smiling and appear to be welcoming someone. The building behind them has many windows and a modern design. There are some trees and a yellow-painted curb in the foreground.
